How did you hear about Canine Country Cottage?

BOARDING CONTRACT AGREEMENT

Canine Country Cottage is without liability for loss or damage from disease, death, ,jumping over perimeter fences, theft, fire, weather related damages, injury to persons, pets, or property by said animals, or unavoidable circumstances/situations as long as Canine Country Cottage has exercised due diligence and care.

Owner acknowledges that all dogs boarded at Canine Country Cottage are current and up to date on Bordetella, Distemper, and Rabies vaccinations and have been treated with a flea/tick preventative within the past 30 days. If fleas/ticks are found, our staff will administer treatment at owners expense. Owner hereby understands that illness, injury, and/or contagious infections can still occur in this environment. Kennel Cough (or Bordetella), even with proper vaccinations, can occur and pet owner agrees to hold harmless Canine Country Cottage.

I understand if my pet arrives with evidence of coughing, sneezing, or otherwise readily apparent signs of illness or injury, it will not be permitted to stay. I understand at this time there have been documented cases of canine influenza in Iowa. To my knowledge, my pet has not been in contact with any infected dogs, and I understand there is no current vaccine for this particular strain of canine influenza.

MEDICATION/VETERINARY TREATMENT RELEASE

Canine Country Cottage has owner's permission to contact a veterinarian and to transport the animal in cases of emergencies that are deemed health-threatening. If your pet needs medical care, we will seek treatment and contact you as soon as possible. Owner authorizes Canine Country Cottage to administer OTC or prescription medicine to your pet. All such expenses incurred by medical treatment described above shall be the responsibility of the owner. Note: Canine Country Cottage is unable to administer injectable medications at this time.

GROUP PLAY AUTHORIZATION

Group play is for dogs that interact well with other dogs. Any time dogs play together there is the possibility/risk of injury due to rough play and combative behavior. We take every precaution to prevent injury, however scratches, bites and other trauma may occur. I agree to hold Canine Country Cottage harmless for any associated risks. Males or females that are not been neutered or spayed are not eligible for group play.

I want my dog to participate in group play.
